Matrix Imaging Products, LLC, established in 1996, is a leading information systems company and provider of "best of class" components, turnkey Content Management solutions, and document scanning services. Matrix Imaging designs, installs, and supports systems to capture, process, store, route, and manage document images and electronic data.

Matrix Imaging represents leading hardware companies, including Kodak, Fujitsu and EMC, and Content Management and Workflow software companies, including Kofax and Legato (formerly OTG Software). Matrix Imaging has modern document conversion centers and highly trained staff in Costa Mesa and Palm Desert, CA. We convert documents, engineering drawings, and microfilm archives into indexed, digital files. On-site conversion support is also available.

Our skill sets include:

- ◆ Requirements Analysis
- ◆ Product Selection
- ◆ Systems Integration
- ◆ Software Development
- ◆ Installation and Training
- ◆ Help Desk and On-Site Support
- ◆ Backfile Conversion Services

MSA Price List:

Our MSA Price List contains line item pricing for Imaging and Workflow software products, annual software update service (required by the manufacturers), and related professional services, performed by Matrix Imaging staff members.

Please note Legato Software pricing is based on a defined number of concurrent users, i.e. simultaneous database connections, vs. named users. Stated pricing is per concurrent user.

For Additional Information:

Please contact us to learn how our technology and applications expertise can help automate your business processes, improve customer responsiveness and staff productivity, and reduce overhead expense.
